2020 - 2021 Reciprocity Policy for Visiting Members Valid March 1, 2020 through March 31, 2021

Admission Benefits

The Oglebay Good Zoo will extend discounted admission to members of all facilities listed on the 2020-21 Reciprocal Zoo List. The discount amount extended is determined by the agreement made between the Oglebay Good Zoo and the reciprocal facility and can vary by institution.

Admission benefits will be extended to the following membership categories:

Individual - Adult named on membership only

Family - Two adults named and children covered under the membership under the age of 21

Grandparents - Two adults named and up to six grandchildren covered under the membership under the age of 21

Higher level memberships will be admitted under our "family" definition.

Additional guests will be asked to pay the daily admission fee.

Reciprocity Guidelines

- Visiting members must present a current membership card and photo identification to receive the admission benefit. If a member has lost his or her card, it is his or her responsibility to have the facility notify us prior to the visit, or visiting members will be asked to pay the daily admission fee.
- Oglebay Good Zoo will not extend free or reduced admission to any adult whose name does not appear on the membership card.
- For membership cards listing three or more adults (including nannies or kid keepers), Oglebay Good Zoo will extend free or reduced admission to the two primary adults only.
- Guest passes, membership guest privileges, and "guest of" cards will not be honored for reciprocal admission.
- Temporary membership cards must have the member's name, membership level, and expiration date to receive the reciprocation benefit.
- Reciprocal admission does not apply to special events or group rates.
- Reciprocal facilities, guidelines, and benefits are subject to change without notice.
